PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE BUILDING, }
HONOLULU, H. I., January 7, 1895.

The right of WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS is hereby suspended and MARTIAL LAW is instituted and established throughout the Island of Oahu, to continue until further notice, during which time, however, the Courts will continue in session and conduct ordinary business as usual, except as aforesaid.

By the President:

SANFORD B. DOLE,
President of the Republic of Hawaii.

J. A. KING,
Minister of the Interior.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS.

Republic of Hawaii

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE.

HONOLULU, H. I., JANUARY 7, 1895.

General Order No. 13.

All persons in the District of Honolulu except those engaged in the Military or Police Forces of the Government, who have in their possession any arms or ammunition, are hereby ordered to produce the same at the Marshal's Office before twelve o'clock noon to-morrow, January 8, 1895.

Any such persons in whose possession any Arms or Ammunition are found after that hour will be liable to summary arrest and imprisonment, and the Arms and Ammunition to confiscation.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief,
JNO. H. SOPER,
Adjutant-General.

STRANGERS' BLUNDERS.

If the conductors of the Star knew anything about political affairs prior to 1893 they would not permit such a spiteful misrepresentation as the following paragraph contains to appear:

An editor whose political career ended with defeat as a running mate with Wilcox, can scarcely be expected at this time to put out a paper in sympathy with the Government.

The foreign branch of the National Reform party had its origin in a movement against Asiatic aggression led by Mr. Kinney, and the editor sneered at in the foregoing quotation gave that gentleman some little aid in conjunction with others holding public meetings. After the crushing defeat of Wilcox's insurrection in 1893, he and other native leaders showed a disposition to be more moderate in their claims for native rights and royal prerogative. They were joined by the foreign branch on a liberal and progressive platform. When Wilcox and some of his leading followers became obstreperous again the BULLETIN opposed them and thereby incurred much personal abuse for itself and its editor. In 1892 the Liberal party of which Wilcox and C. W. Ashford were the leaders broke away from the National Reform party, and Mr. Thurston and other leaders of the Reform party decided not to put up a ticket against the National Reformers rather than risk the election of the Liberal ticket. In the Legislature Wilcox was found voting with Thurston to prevent any National Reform Cabinet from retaining office. After the revolution of 1893 Wilcox is found on the platform of the Annexation Club with a former editor of the Star, and his words are paraded in the Star with every sign of gratification. In view of all these facts, the less the Star says about Wilcox and his former friends the better. He was taken up by the Star after being given up by the BULLETIN, and it does not seem as if his later friends have improved him much.

In purchasing a sewing machine it is advisable to select the one that will do the most work. Any machine will sew one stitch but there is only one that will sew three and that one is the Wertheim for which we are the Agents. During the past few years a machine has been on the market that by changing several parts and putting on an attachment two separate stitches may be made. The bother in changing, however, has been so great that owners of the machines have taken the lesser evil and done their work with one stitch.

The "Wertheim" is constructed on such simple lines that to change from the lock to the chain stitch is less work than to thread a needle, and when the stitch is made, found to be as perfectly done as if the machine sewed but one stitch. For embroidery or any fancy work the Wertheim excels because the inventor included an embroidery attachment among the manifold blessings of the "Wertheim." Perhaps the greatest merit of the "Wertheim" is the price. We sell it for less money than you pay for an ordinary machine that will do less work and is less attractive in appearance. Our stock of "Wertheims" includes several styles of tables.

Some people burn candles at night, some use peanut oil and others kerosene. We do not mean during the evening, but through the still hours of the night when "cocks crow and ghosts walk." We've sold all sorts of lamps for this purpose and we have generally aimed to get the best. A few days ago we received an invoice of lamps similar to the "Nutmeg" but much better for the reason that they have diminutive reflectors and an attachment whereby they may be hung up to the wall. They cost only fifty cents and you get three dollars worth of satisfaction out of one of them.

The fruit is forming and in a short time will be ready to pick. With mangoes and alligator pears it is damaging to have the fruit knocked from the trees with stones or clubs. We have imported recently a new style picker that will bring down the fruit as perfect as when it leaves the tree. If you want one of them without a pole it costs you fifty cents—two bits extra if you take a pole.

Honolulu has in it a very large fish-eating community and the man who invented the Fish Scaler must have either lived here or taken charge of his own kitchen while the cook was taking a holiday. They are made like two saws running parallel with a handle on the end. All you have to do is to take hold of the tail of the fish and run your scaler over it and your fish is as clean as a whistle. You would be astonished at the rapidity with which the work is accomplished. Twenty-five cents is cheap enough.

One of our tool boxes is the handiest things in the world to have about the house. There's always more or less tinkering to be done, not enough to necessitate calling in a carpenter and too much for your servant to do if he hasn't the tools. Our family tool chest fills a long-felt want in Honolulu and on the other Islands. If you get one of them you will never regret it.

THROAT COMFORT

FOR EVERYBODY.

Nothing heretofore known is anything like so useful.

Few are so free from catarrh and other affections that touch the throat as to have no need of relief from "tickling" or "dryness" or "rawness" or "irritation" or "inflammation" of the throat, or to have no need of help in the use of the voice, as in talking or reading aloud or singing.

It gives the throat rest.

FOR SPEAKERS AND SINGERS.

THROAT COMFORT will give you such voice as is not to be got in any other way.

Such statements are common; you don't believe it. Try one tablet—let it dissolve in the mouth.

COLD IN THE HEAD.

At the beginning of a cold, when you have the chilly feeling, a tablet every ten or fifteen minutes will generally prevent the cold.

It is a tonic for the stomach as well as for the throat.

RELIEF OF PAIN.

In all painful throat diseases, such as tonsillitis and quinsy, THROAT COMFORT gives relief beyond your expectation.

Many troublesome throat disorders are kept up by incessant "clearing of the throat" or by coughing. The rest that THROAT COMFORT gives, in such cases, is all that is needed to let the throat get well.

There is no harm in any amount of it. It will not even upset the stomach, unless sugar does.
